

Company Profile

DIATOLS Diamond Products is a modern well equipped plant using the latest Australian and Canadian manufacturing technology at its facility located at Danyang city , Jiangsu province, China.

Specializing in prompt technical problem solving, we pride ourselves in our ability to respond to customer demands with the supply of high quality product at competitive rates.

The founding directors have in excess of eighty years of Western expertise in the areas of matrix metallurgy, technical design, manufacturing processes and quality systems.

DIATOLS is continually improving its product performance based on an extensive R&D program comprising from innovative product development and field experience.